OUR CLAN CREST

The Munro Clan has an Golden Eagle as our Clan Crest. It is used for both the Chief of Clan's Personal Arms as well as the Clansmen's Badge which we may all wear.

It is believed the eagle was chosen because the traditional lands, and castle of the Clan Munro are known as Foulis, which sounds like fowls (meaning birds) and that we are "fowls of the air".

What colours will you use to colour in our Clan Crest?

Highland Cows love eating apples and carrots. Help Fergus find his way to the apples.

OUR TARTAN

Tartan is a dyed material in a pattern of different coloured lines crossing each other.

Many Scottish things like kilts and bagpipes are made with tartan material and each Clan has one or more styles. This is the most used Clan Munro tartan.

Make your own tartan using bright colours.

LET'S LEARN SOME SCOTTISH WORDS!

A long time ago, Scottish people spoke a language called Scottish Gaelic. Today, most people in Scotland speak English, but some still speak Gaelic! People with Scottish families in places like the USA, Canada, Australia, and New Zealand also know how to speak this language.

Emily is learning to say some Gaelic words. Can you say these words along with Emily?
